

We Are Children of Creation

♩ = 94

1. We are child - ren of cre - a - tion, star - flung bits of liv - ing fire,
2. New fron - tiers de - fy old boun - daries as we probe both time and space,
3. God, you made us in your im - age, made your chil - dren to be one;

crea - tures with im - a - gin - a - tion, framed with pas - sion and de - sire;
seek - ing to de - code the quan - daries that con - found the hu - man race:
how can we, of com - mon lin - eage, make Your will on earth be done?

star - borne, earth - bound, we in - her - it an - cient ties that make us kin, how from star - dust life un - fold - ed, timed a hu - man heart to beat Word of God, made flesh a - mong us, use our pas - sion and de - sire spun by cos - mic, fier - y Spir - it at the point where worlds be - gin.

in a bod - y shaped and mold - ed from the earth be - neath our feet.
to cre - ate a world with jus - tice: breathe in us your Spir - it's fire.

NEW CREATION
8.7.8.7.D.

This hymn places the known facts about the physical universe within the context of the God who creates and inspires it. Made in the image of God, we are also given creative abilities: we have the power both to imagine and then to create a world with justice.
